ARGOSARONIC GULF

POROS ISLAND

Verdant Poros is small in size but generous otherwise. It feels like a coastal town, as it's separated by the Peloponnese only by a narrow sea channel. At the same time, though, it boasts all of the qualities found in the Greek islands of the Argosaronic Gulf.

EAST PELOPONESSE

MONEMVASIA

In the eastern of the Prefecture of Laconia is standing imperious the beautiful Sea - City of Monemvasia. Next to the waves, under the hot sun, the birth place of Giannis Ritsos seems to glow as the “ship of stone”travels back in time, where Venetians and Ottomans wandered its cobbled alleyways. Monemvasia or poetic Monemvazia, Malvouazi for the Franks, Malmzy for the English and Monovasia for the local people, this imperishable homeland of the poet is like a trip in the past and one of the most favorite destinations for lovers.
