CYCLADES

KEA ISLAND

Kea or Tzia Is the 'gate' to the Cyclades, the Far West Island of the Cyclades and closest to Attica. It's beautiful and rare natural environment, the originality of its villages and memories of past times fascinate visitors from the first moment, as thousands of years of history unfold before their eyes.

CYCLADES

SYROS ISLAND

This is the island where Greek tradition and western influence come to a harmonious marriage.Ermoúpoli (meaning "the city of Hermes") is the island's capital town and has been the first important trade and industrial centre of the country in the 19th century. Evidence of this glorious past can be seen on public buildings (the City Hall, the Customs Office, "Apollo" theatre), on the neoclassical houses and at the beautiful squares.

PAROS ISLAND

Paros is so fascinating on so many levels that many people love it having seen only one of its faces. Don't jump to conclusions about what you like, get to know the island first and find your "own" Paros, the face that suits you best. No doubt, though, it will charm you even if you see a different side from the one expected. The island of Paros is famous for its golden beaches, clear blue waters and nightlife.

SIFNOS ISLAND

Sifnos belongs to the West Cyclades and is situated in the middle of the triangle formed by Serifos, Kimolos and Antiparos. Its pristine white settlements, blending superbly with the natural environment, its sandy beaches, picturesque churches and monasteries, its Venetian castle and ancient towers, and the wise cultivation of the land, its ceramics, hospitality and local feasts make up a superb, exciting and alluring setting for every traveller.

KYTHNOS ISLAND

Kythnos is like a modest beauty. It is not famous, no pictures of Kythnos are seen on the cover of magazines. However it is truly beautiful and genuine, and very “well behaved” too. It is approachable, friendly, joyful and hospitable. A holiday destination out of the ordinary, this is one of its greatest virtues.
