PAROS ISLAND

Paros is so fascinating on so many levels that many people love it having seen only one of its faces. Don't jump to conclusions about what you like, get to know the island first and find your "own" Paros, the face that suits you best. No doubt, though, it will charm you even if you see a different side from the one expected. The island of Paros is famous for its golden beaches, clear blue waters and nightlife.

CYCLADES

SIFNOS ISLAND

Sifnos belongs to the West Cyclades and is situated in the middle of the triangle formed by Serifos, Kimolos and Antiparos. Its pristine white settlements, blending superbly with the natural environment, its sandy beaches, picturesque churches and monasteries, its Venetian castle and ancient towers, and the wise cultivation of the land, its ceramics, hospitality and local feasts make up a superb, exciting and alluring setting for every traveller.

CYCLADES

SANTORINI ISLAND

Cousteau looked for the lost city of Atlantis here. On Santorini. Crescent-shaped Santorini (or Thíra), the precious gem of the Aegean, is actually a group of islands consisting of Thíra, Thirassiá, Aspronissi, Palea and Nea Kaméni in the southernmost part of Cyclades. Did you know that the whole complex of Santorini islands is still an active volcano (the same as Méthana, Mílos & Nísiros) and probably the only volcano in the world whose crater is in the sea?

AMORGOS ISLAND

Did you know that the 1988 movie "The Big Blue" with Jean Reno was shot on the island of Amorgòs, at the south eastern edge of the Cyclades? Parts of the island reach a considerable height above sea level, offering superb views out over the Archipelago, Amorgós is one of the most impressive Cycladic islands, boasting marvellous beaches with azure waters, gorgeous caves, ideal spots for diving, scenic bays and ancient footpaths leading through its steep rocky terrain...
